DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "upper surface of the base member includes a detent which engages a helical surface on a lower portion of the external lower collar" recited in claim 33 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 29-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The preamble of the independent claims 29 and 34 recites, "In an adjustable arc spray nozzle..., the improvement...comprising:..." The claims are presented in Jepson form and appear to claim merely the improvement but the body of the claim recites the improvement in relation to what is admitted as being known. It is uncertain whether applicant is claiming only the improvement or the adjustable arc spray nozzle including the improvement.

The preamble of the dependent claims is inconsistent with the parent claim.

Claim 32 recites the limitation "slot" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 32 recites the limitation "the amount water..." in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 33 recites "ratchet type action" in line 5. The recitation "type" renders the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 29-32, 34 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Deatherage (659,791).

Regarding claims 29-32, Deatherage discloses an adjustable arc spray nozzle comprising: a top member G; a base member A; an internal helix member E, C having means c, g for preventing and a helically configured surface H; a plurality of incremental steps D; a rotatable external lower collar (element attached to threads a).

Regarding claims 34 and 35, Deatherage discloses an adjustable arc spray nozzle comprising: a top member G; a base member A; an internal helix member E; an internal flow adjustment screw C having a flange g; .

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 3752

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 29-40 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-28 of U.S. Patent No.

6,464,151. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the '151 Patent fully discloses the limitations of the claimed invention.

5. Claims 29-40 rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,637,672.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of the '672 Patent fully discloses the limitations of the claimed invention.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hunter discloses a means for preventing rotation.
